The Mormons Alarmed.

Reports from Salt Lake City show that the recent severe course of justice in Utah has produced little less than a panic among the disciples of Brigham Young. If reports are to be credited the hierarchy is on the verge of the greatest crisis in its history. The saints had hoped to meet with some recognition of their long faithfulness to the Democratic party on its coming into power, but instead they are compelled to expect a continuation of the uncompromising enforcement of justice which they have recently experienced. Revolutions, it is said, never go backward. The country has become so fully determined that the laws shall be respected, that the Democratic administration could not, if it would, protect the Mormons in their continued nullification of them. They know that their only hope lies in such a corruption of party leaders and officers as shall cripple the law and render its enforcement impossible. The Mormon leaders would be glad to be rid of the Republican officers who have executed the laws under the Edmunds bill, but they have reasons to fear that polygamy will not go unpunished under their successors. Having denounced Mormonism so uncompromisingly in his inaugural address, Mr. Cleveland cannot put the Federal patronage in the hands of those who would be influenced by Mormon bribes. In fact, it is intimated that few removals or new appointments will be made in Utah. Certainly the best way for President Cleveland to testify to the honesty of his professions will be to continue in office the officials who have proved their fidelity and efficiency in administering the laws against polygamy. —[Portland Oregonian.]

The Case of Arnold.

Monday a very manly Mormon was before the Third District Court. Mr. Orson P. Arnold was arraigned on an indictment charging him with unlawful cohabitation. He promptly pleaded "guilty." Being questioned by the court, he frankly stated that he proposed hereafter to live strictly within its laws; that he proposed to support his second wife and her family, but no longer to live with them, and that henceforth he proposed to use his moral influence on the side of the laws. He was rightly let off with a slight fine. His bearing was that of a sincere and true man who, after serious thought had reached a conclusion, and had determined henceforth to live up to it. Compared with the conduct of the heads of the church, the bearing of Mr. Arnold was such that everyone who saw him felt that the promotions heretofore in the holy church had been by favor rather than upon merit.—Salt Lake Tribune.

Has "Caught On."

"Say, boss, what is the meanin' ov bein' a Mormon?" inquired a lazy looking coon of an intelligent State Department clerk, as the couple met a few days ago.

"A Mormon? Why, a Mormon is a resident of Utah and averages from two to eighteen wives."

"Well, boss, what fo' you white folks got so down on de Mormons and want to mak'em close der business?"

"Because it is highly immoral, this thing of plurality of wives."

"I dunno nuffin 'bout plurality, but I jess wish I could be a Mormon right down here in Washington. I've only got one wife and she makes a libbin fo' me a takin' in washin'—and goddlemity, if I could be 'lowed by de law to hab twenty I needn't do nuffin' but drink gin an' ride in de street cars all de rest of my born days."—[Washington Hatchet.]

Dillon Bros., of Normal, Ill., recently sold a five year old Norman stallion for $5,500, which is said to be the highest price ever obtained in the United States for a stallion of this excellent breed.
